SENIOR PARTY

The evening of October 29 found the graduating seniors attending their traditional Senior Party.

The Little Theatre, gay with pumpkins and witches, was the setting for this Hallowe'en hilarity. Seniors participated in a quiz show, played games and topped the evening with dancing. Cider and daughnuts were served in true Hallowe'en theme.

The patrons and patronesses were Mr. and Mrs. Gray, Mr. and Mrs. Sikes, Mr. and Mrs. Pascoe, and Mr. and Mrs. Gemmer.

The Senior committee included Theresa Persico, Orwyn Lufkin, Lina Murasheff, Marguerite Bertolli, Howard Thompson, Lolita Miller, Bill Kirk, and Florence Grace.

SENIOR BANQUET

One of the most important social events of the term was the Senior Banquet which was held in the cafeteria on January 20.

Vice-President Esmeralda Luiz opened the program with a welcoming speech. James O'Drain, toastmaster, gave the response. Mary Ambrosio played a violin solo. Also on the program was Florence Grace, who sang, with Myrna Cushing as her accompanist.

Much to the surprise of the students, Mr. Gray presented awards to three of the most outstanding members of the class. James O'Drain received the award for his participation in school activities, Len Sullivan, for athletic participation, and Mary Ambrosio, for outstanding scholarship.

Guests of the evening were Mr. and Mrs. Gray, Mr. and Mrs. Sikes, Miss Olson, Miss Meyers, and Mrs. Gemmer.

The committee in charge of the arrangements consisted of Betty Negus, Del Babb, Myrna Cushing, and Betty Jane Brazil.

SENIOR DAY

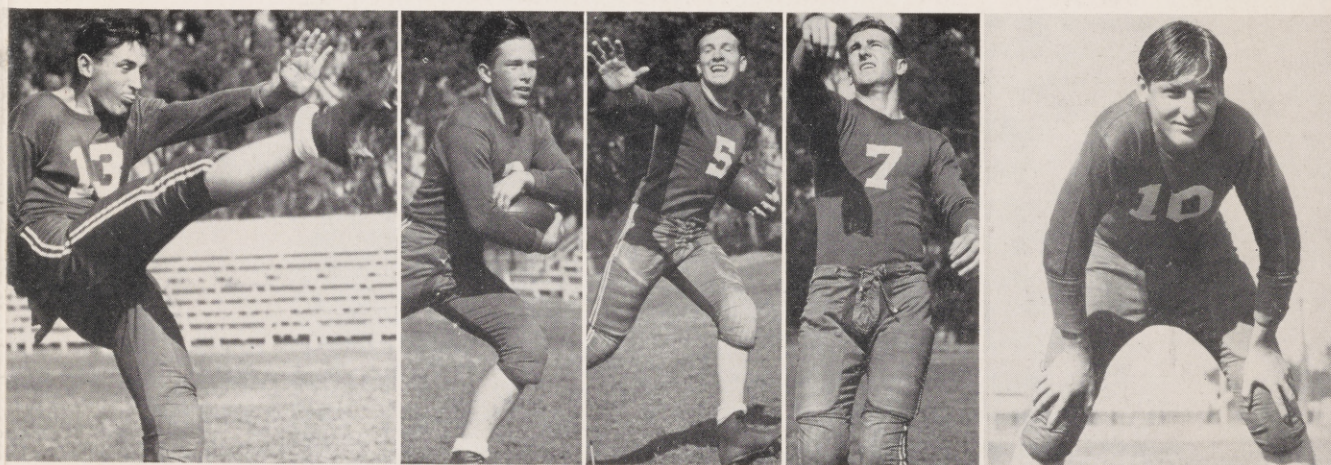

The morning of December 10 found graduating Seniors promenading auditorium aisles to the beat of a riotous procession, as overture to the traditional Senior Day. Prizes for the best costumes were won by Betty Jane Brazil and Walter Behich. Betty was a Ration Book and Walter was an Admiral.

"They're Either Too Young or Too Old" was the timely title of the Senior Class Play. The four scenes, devoted to students and faculty satire, depicted a sewing class, a civics class, the girls' dormitory and the "Campus Capers Show."

Miss Myers directed the writing and performance of this successful extravaganza.

Costumed Seniors attended classes in physical substance only, and danced during lunch periods in the Girls' Gym.

Mary Malloy was chairman of the day.

STUDENT ASSOCIATION

This year, for the first time, the Student Association has operated under the new constitution adopted last spring.

Most important innovation under the constitution is the student council made up of class officers and representatives from each school club. A commissioner of publicity and commissioner of treasury have been added to the Board of Commissioners.

To the Student Court has been added a Supreme Court, consisting of faculty members, to whom the offending students may appeal.

The Student Association has provided several entertaining and edifying assemblies for the student body during the semester.

C. S. F. President

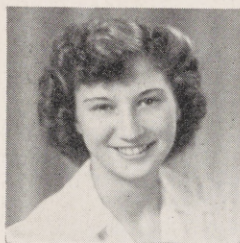

CALIFORNIA SCHOLARSHIP FEDERATION

This semester, forty-three students were elected to membership in the California Scholarship Federation, secondary schools academic honor society.

At the first meeting of the year, Mary Malloy was elected president. Assisting her are Lois Nuss, vice-president, Jackie Thompson, social chairman and Beatrice Freitas, secretary-treasurer.

The most exciting social event of the year was a theatre party at the Geary Theatre in San Francisco. The group enjoyed Sylvia Sydney's interpretation of "Jane Eyre."

The chapter has launched its usual project for the raising of funds for a deserving student. A cookie and candy sale netted $17.50, the initial funds for the Scholarship. Members have also donated money to buy magazine subscriptions for overseas bases.

SHIELD STAFF

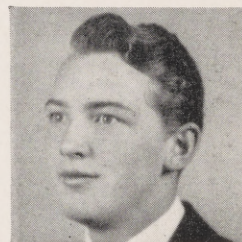

The SHIELD staff was organized this year as an extra-curricular activity, the particular responsibility of the 2-12 Class as graduating Seniors.

Theresa Persico was appointed Editor-in-Chief, Janette Baker served ably as Manager, Bonnie Bird did yeoman duty as Assistant Editor, Mary Malloy supervised the Activities copy, Orwyne Lufkin prepared the Senior pages and Mrs. Prescott served as faculty adviser.

BOB NICOL
President

DRAMATICS CLUB

A Dramatics Club was organized this year along lines of greater student responsibility.

Under the supervision of Mr. Turner Brasher, the organization elected Bob Nicol president. A play committee was then formed to select several plays for consideration of the club. Members selected "June Mad," a comedy in three acts. Tryouts were held and the cast as announced included:

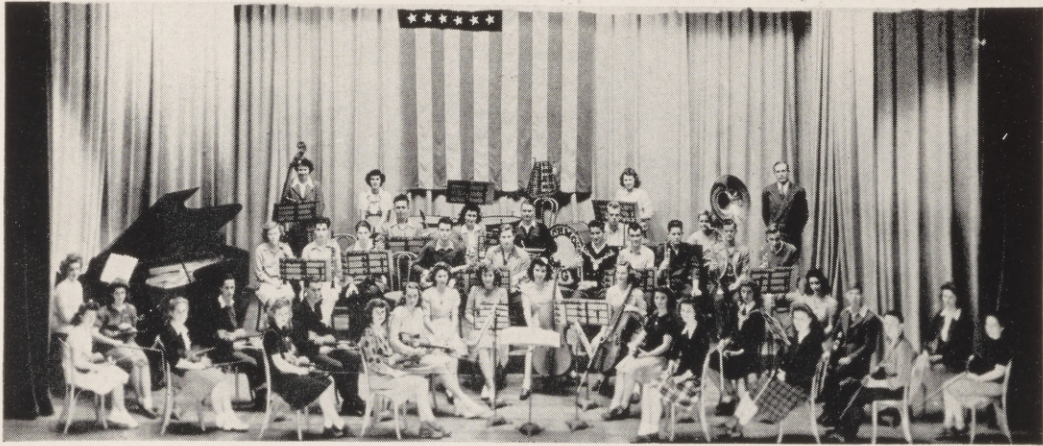

Penny - - - -	Barbara Hislop	Millie Lou - - -	Rita Clements
Chuck - - - -	Bob Nicol	G Mervyn Roberts -	Albert Anderson
Mrs. Woods - - -	Dorothi Strothers	Julie - - - -	Betty Norine

Effie - - - -	Joy Ann Woods	Roger Van Vleck - - -	Bob Luck
Elmer - - - -	Maurice Press	Ralph - - - -	Howard Harvey
	Shirley - - - -		Norma Doyale

A delighted audience laughed heartily at this cleverly presented comedy, on January 28, in the school auditorium.

B A N D

In spite of the terrific amount of work entailed, Mr. Brashear and the Band have worked faithfully, and been honored with the distinction of being the only school band in the league to present field shows at the football games this term. They performed at all our home games and played for our assembly meetings and rallies. The following are the members of the band: Francis Aebi, Maurice Betts, Lola Broyles, Lula Bragg, LeRoy Cleveland, Eddy Dodson, David French, Gerald Foley, Lawrence Finnie, Joe Filice, Eunice Gjerde, Hazel Harvey, James Kahanson, Janet Holling, Dorothy Lynn, James Maxwell, Bill McNeil, Richard McNeil, George Morris, James O'Drain, Alice Mae Olsgard, Gloria Roe, Burnette Sutton, Louise Walker, Marilyn Weiss, Margaret Wyland, Robert Wyman, Barbara York, Mary Ann Hokanson, Mary Helen Rounds, Verl White, Lita Gildersleeve, Walter Hamilton, Dick Leupp, Carolyn Moore, Richard Wagner, Donald Grider, Katheryn Kittelson, Audrey Akeson, Don Esola, George Ashby, Mary Bahrs, Don Burleigh, Norma Cochran, Ken Dasher, Harold Deane, Donna Mae Decks, David Dunn, Bob Fortina, Russel Garvin, Mildred Hammer, Leslie Rose, Bob Madrid, Robert Manning, Jane Michelson, Arlene Phillips, Kenneth Renkert, James Sharpen, JoAnn Smith, Tommy Dean Speck, Marvin Thorpe, Wands Westmoreland, Charles White, Melba Wyrick, Charles Sudduth, Howard Harvey, Billy Pierce, Fritz Campbell, Bill Chastoen, Elizabeth Simmons, Phillip Martin, Kenneth Koey, Darlene Dilly, Sylvan Amdahl, Bob Gruppe, Ables Janell, and Helen Larsan.

O R C H E S T R A

Our Orchestra, under the direction of Mr. Brashear, has been very active in school affairs this term. Heading its list of performances was a concert given on November 24 for the student body.

"The Star Spangled Banner" - - - - -	John S. Smith

The A Cappella Choir under the leadership of Mr. H. Cunningham, has completed a very full semester. The Choir has met every day, fourth period, to practice with approximately thirty-nine members. Max Metzger served as president this term.

This year the club has featured an alumnae, Orla Reeves Lockyer, as soloist. Mrs. Lockyer is also an accomplished pianist and has been awarded the Mendelssohn scholarship.

On December 17, 1943, the Choir presented its sixth annual program for the Kiwanis Club at a luncheon meeting. They have also performed at Longfellow Junior High School, Richmond Shipyards One, Two and Three, and for the Christmas Assembly.

The outstanding affair of the year was the Choir's Christmas concert presented on December 12, 1943, in the school auditorium. The program of fourteen selections, embraced hymns, carols and modern arrangements

G I R L S P O N S O R S

Girl Sponsors, a new organization under the direction of Miss Alexander and Miss Brooke, was inaugurated this semester. The purpose of this organization was to introduce new girls to Richmond Union High School, to show them the grounds, tell them about the various clubs and organizations, and to make them feel at home by helping them "get acquainted."

Thirty girls from the C. S. F. were called together to form the nucleus for the Sponsors. From these girls a president and ten captains were appointed. They were Barbara Williams, president, Lois Mae Anderson, Betty Boyd, Beverly Craven, Frances Favero, Lois Nuss, Alice O'Brien, Edwina Perey, Bessie Poulos, Dolores Sherwood, Dorothy Strother, and Jacqueline Thompson. Each captain was then put in charge of ten sponsors.

On September 13, the beginning of the new semester, each captain was assigned to three advisories of 1-10's where each sponsor took charge of three girls. There were also captains to take care of the transfers. This has been continued, and sponsors are in Miss Brooke's office each day during the lunch periods to help transfers.

The first day of school was not the end of the Sponsor's job, for she contacted her girls later to see if everything was going well, and invited them to the party given for all new girls.

This party given during the second week of school for all new girls, turned out to be a great success by providing a chance for all the girls to get together and become better acquainted. The Girl Sponsors have helped to orient the many new girls who came to Richmond this year.

This year the Lambda Omega Lambda enjoyed a very successful semester under the leadership of Miss Carlson, sponsor, Elaine Reichman, president, La Verne Antone, vice-president, Dorothy Oliviera, secretary-treasurer, Jeanne Rhinehart, social chairman, and Elaine Parker, song leader.

There were approximately fifty members in the club including twenty-three new members.

Their work this year has consisted of educational, recreational and war service activities.

The L. O. L. has had several social events throughout the semester including a recognition service, song fests and a skating party. They also attended an international banquet of the Girls Reserve Club.

Their war service work has consisted of making surgical dressings, making favors for soldiers in hospitals, and various other activities.

Traffic Committee

The Traffic Committee, under the direction of Mr. Waugh, has had a busy and successful term. The committee has been enlarged due to the great influx of students.

Along with "playing policemen," these students have planned and executed many improvements in the school. Particularly notable was a clean-up drive in the yard and the cafeteria.

The procedure of handling traffic has been changed this term. Instead of having a definite post to maintain, commissioners had assigned districts to patrol.

Forensic Club

The Forensic Society of R. U. H. S. was originated this term under the direction of a new faculty member, Robert France. This organization was established for the purpose of studying the techniques of debating oratory, and extemporaneous speaking.

The activities for the term consisted of participation in the San Francisco State College debate tournament. Subject debated was "Should the United Nations Join in Reconstituting a League of Nations?"

Although the Forensic Society has existed solely as a club, it will be scheduled as a regular class next semester.

The American Junior Red Cross projects which were carried out were sewing, knitting, Christmas boxes, scrap-books, puzzles and woodwork.

Under the leadership of Lois Barry, sewing was done on utility bags, fracture pillows, bedside bags and bedroom slippers.

With the assistance of Mrs. Gemmer, many girls learned to knit, and during the semester made two afghans, thirty wash cloths and forty pair of rifle mits.

Boys in wood shop made lap boards, writing boards, games and cribbage boards.

Stamps and Bonds

We are proud to say that we have kept the United States Treasury flag flying beside our Stars and Stripes throughout this semester. This flag proclaims that 90 per cent of the students have bought stamps or bonds.

The total amount of stamp sales to December 17, was $6,760.20, and the bond total was $8,675.00.

December 7 highlighted the semester's sales with a total of $5,350.00 in bonds and $668.45, in stamps purchased at school that day.

S P O R T S

VARSITY FOOTBALL

The R. U. H. S. football team began the season under a terrific handicap. They were not expected to win much with only two returning lettermen. However, the green sophomores and inexperienced seniors came through, and the season developed into one of the most successful in recent years. Much of the credit is due Coach Bob Pascoe for his fine work in developing the team.

COACH PASCOE

Three of the outstanding members of the team were selected by the coaches of opposing teams as worthy of All-A. C. A. L. mention. The boys were Delvin Babb, tackle; Jim Cronin, end; and Charles Seger, fullback.

A banquet was given the Oilers by the Richmond Rotary Club at the end of the season at which letters and awards were presented. Delvin Babb received the All-American blanket, Charles Seger, the oil can, and Leonard Sullivan, the scholarship.

Seniors who played their last season of football were Jim Cronn, Bill McAndrews, Delvin Babb, George Torvik, La Verne Hall, Charles Seger, George Newell, Leonard Sullivan, Willard Stone and Ed Radosovich.

San Rafael—on the afternoon of the initial game, the team, with no idea of its strength or how it would fare, met the Bulldogs from San Rafael. Richmond's offense clicked beautifully and its defense stopped the Bulldogs cold. The Oilers came home with a 13-0 victory. Stand-outs were George Newell, Gene Otto, and George Torvik.

Vallejo—With a bit more confidence, the Oilers faced the Vallejo Apaches. It was a hard-fought game throughout. The edge score of 13-12, was established by a conversion after the first touchdown. Stars were Charles Seger, Neville Calfee and Jim Cronn.

Berkeley—Richmond traveled to Berkeley to meet a highly-favored Yellowjacket team. Although heavily outgained, the Oilers held them to a 0-0 tie. The Richmond forward wall composed of Bob Weir, Gene Otto, Bill McAndrews, and Delvin Babb, played great games at their positions. Richmond proved to be the only team in the league which Berkeley did not defeat.

Albany—Richmond met Albany on the Richmond High turf with revenge in their hearts remembering last year a 32-0 defeat. It was our day, we won with a runaway score of 27-7. The feature of the game was a 75-yard touchdown dash by Leonard Sullivan.

Hayward—the Farmers of Hayward, the only team to “make hay” with Richmond were probably the most outstanding team that the Oilers played. Richmond’s pass defense was sadly lacking and though we were stopped several times deep in Hayward territory we were defeated 13-0.

Piedmont—Coach Pascoe raised his boys and his hopes to a terrific pitch for this game, and the Oilers came through. Richmond’s forward wall smothered the Piedmont attack and Richmond’s offense rolled through the highly-touted Highlanders. We made a touchdown in each half to break a long string of traditional defeats by Piedmont. The score was 14-0.

Alameda—The Hornets furnished the Oilers with more competition than they had expected. Richmond, however, soon showed its power and won the game 13-0 over the hapless Alamedans, who failed to win a league game. Charles Seger, Oiler fullback, was elected captain before the game.
